

Feed My Lambs continues with Fr. Yvon Arsenault

On Wednesday, March 10th the third session of Feed My Lambs took place at St. Michael's Church in Moncton with Fr. Yvon Arsenault, priest moderator of Queen of All Saints. One of the most life-giving aspects of priesthood for Fr. Yvon is preaching. Prior to his ordination, an uncle asked that when he preached he use a language that ordinary folks could understand, and Fr. Yvon said that comment has stayed with him throughout his 42 years of priesthood. He mentioned that Fr. Bill Burke's comments during It's All About the Mystery concerning the recovery of the Word brought about through Vatican II really resonated with him. Fr. Yvon sees the priesthood as a call to be at service to the people of God and said that this is the call he has responded to, and the one which is the most important to him as a priest – being with people in their need, whatever that may be. Feed My Lambs continues at Immaculate Conception Church in Rexton on April 29th with Fr. Alfred Desautels, C.Ss.R. beginning with Mass at 7:00 p.m.
