

FLU PRECAUTIONARY MEASURES LIFTED:

The regional district medical health officer, Dr. Denis Allard, has just sent us the following message: "As concerns the special precautions taken in the context of religious rituals during the pandemic flu, it is quite reasonable, in my opinion, to cease applying these measures at the beginning of May, which is our normal seasonal influenza period."